

1 YES, AND... Extend

- What else follows from this?
- How can this idea be taken further?
- What additional possibilities arise?

Build on what's there.

2 WHAT IF...? Transform

- What if something were different?
- What if the conditions changed?
- What if this became something else?

Change an assumption.

3 WHAT IF NOT? Subtract

- What happens without it?
- What can be removed or reduced?
- What is the project without this element?

Take something away.

4 INVERT IT Reverse

- What if this worked backward?
- What if the opposite were true?
- What if the roles, sequence, or relationship were reversed?

Turn it upside down.

5 CHANGE PERSPECTIVE Reframe

- How would someone else experience this?
- What is the view from a different role?
- What does this look like to a machine, an audience member, or the environment?

See it through other eyes.

7 FORCED JUXTAPOSITION Combine

- What happens when two unrelated things collide?
- What connections might emerge?
- Can a random element be combined with this project?

Bring unlikely things together.

8 CHANGE THE CONTEXT Relocate

- What if this happened somewhere else?
- What if it took place in a different time or culture?
- What changes when the context changes?

Put it in a new place.

9 CHANGE THE AUDIENCE Reorient

- What if the audience were completely different?
- How would this work for a new community?
- What are their needs, values, or expectations?

Give it to a different audience.

11 REMOVE THE TECHNOLOGY Decouple

- What if a key technology were not available?
- What remains of the underlying idea?
- Can the concept exist without its assumed tools?

Strip it down.

10 BREAK IT Disrupt

- How could this fail, malfunction, or be misunderstood?
- What if it breaks, glitches, or goes wrong?
- What might the failure create?

Use failure as a generator.

12 SWAP THE MEDIUM Translate

- What if this became a different medium?
- How would it change as a performance, installation, game, object, or platform?
- What survives the translation?

Reimagine the form.